

How Will You Tell Your Story?

1. I will write out my story and allow the pastor to read it confidentially.
2. I will write out my story and allow my family to read it.
3. I will write out my story and send it in cards to friends.
4. I will write out my story and share it in a small group or Sunday School class.
5. I will write out my story and share it in a church service.
6. I will write out my story and share it at an "open mic" fellowship night.
7. I will write out my story and read it on video to be put on the church website or shared in a service.
8. I will write out my story and read it on video to be put on Facebook.
9. I will write out my story and put the script of it on Facebook on my wall or my personal info page.
10. I will write out my story and share it one-on-one with friends over lunch.
11. I will write out my story and invite friends over just to hear it.
12. I will write out my story and allow it to appear in a book of stories by TVCOG members.
13. I will write out my story and share it with the youth or children's ministry.
14. I will write out my story and share it at another church.
15. I will share my story with at least ten people this year.
16. I will participate in "cardboard" testimonies during a service where I put a word or phrase that describes what I was on one side of a piece of cardboard and a word or phrase on the other side of the cardboard that describes how Christ has changed me.
17. I will text a three to five sentence testimony to friends that I think need Christ.
18. I will start an online blog where I testify monthly or weekly.
19. I will post my favorite Scriptures online regularly and explain why they are my favorite.
20. I will pray for opportunities to share my testimony.
